

Learning Through Exploration, Play and Inquiry

Exploring many different environments and the elements within it;
Problem solving and collaborating with peers;

Sparking creativity and imagination through exploration;

Leading and initiating their own play and learning; and
Uninterrupted learning experiences during play throughout the day;

Open-ended materials, resources, and equipment that support development and promote quality learning opportunities;
Questions that encourage curiosity, inquiry, engagement, and reflection.